

15 YEARS OF SALUTING EXCELLENCE -

WINNERS OF THE ABI FINANCIAL MEDIA AWARDS 2010

Clive Anderson hosted the fifteenth ABI Financial Media Awards on 3 November 2010.

Winners of each of the awards were voted for by the communications and press offices at ABI member companies. They represent the continuing high standards in financial reporting that we have come to expect from the UK's financial media.

Up and Coming Financial
Journalist of the Year

Sponsored by Standard Life

Winner - Lauren Thompson,
Daily Mail

Financial Trade Publication
of the Year -

Sponsored by Ageas

Winner - Post Magazine

Pensions and Savings
Journalist of the Year

Sponsored by AEGON

Winner - James Salmon,
Daily Mail

Financial Consumer
Champion of the Year

Sponsored by Direct Line
Insurance

Winner - Jeff Prestridge, Mail
on Sunday

Financial Broadcaster or Programme of the Year

Sponsored by Lansons Communications

Winner - BBC Money Box

Business Journalist of the Year

Sponsored by The Co-operative Financial Services (CFS)

Winner - Miles Costello, the Times

Insurance Journalist of the Year

Sponsored by RSA

Winner – Jamie Dunkley

Personal Finance Journalist of the Year

Sponsored by Home & Legacy

Winner - Stephen Womack, Mail on Sunday

Personal Finance Editor of the Year

Sponsored by Scottish
Widows

Winner - Paul Farrow, Daily
Telegraph

General Insurance Journalist
of the Year

Sponsored by AA Insurance

Winner - Mairi MacDonald,
Post Magazine

Freelance Financial
Journalist of the Year

Sponsored by Friends
Provident

Winner - Esther Shaw

Financial Commentator of
the Year

Sponsored by Pension
Corporation

Winner - Anthony Hilton,
London Evening Standard

Life and Protection Journalist
of the Year

Sponsored by MHP

Winner - Madeleine Davies,
Health Insurance and Protection

Personal Finance
Newspaper of the Year

Sponsored by AXA

Winner - The Times

Outstanding Achievement in Financial Journalism

Sponsored by LV=

Winner: Ian Cowie, Daily
Telegraph

