

IFRS 17 – the final straight

26 November 2019

ABI, One America Square, 17 Crosswall, London, EC3N 2LB

The ABI and KPMG are jointly holding a third IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts event on 26 November, as the IASB prepares to finalise this important new accounting standard with significant amendments due early in 2020.

13:45	Registration and networking
14:15	Welcome and Introduction
	Hugh Savill, Director of Regulation, ABI
14:20	Progress and prospects for IFRS 17: UK regulatory perspective
	Anthony Appleton, Director, Accounting and Reporting Policy, Financial Reporting Council
14:40	Panel session one: Preparers' perspectives on the latest exposure draft
	Chair: Andrew Carpenter, Senior Policy Adviser, Financial Reporting, ABI <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Darren Clay, IFRS 17 Senior Technical Actuary, Standard Life • Jo Clube, Group Technical Accounting Director, Aviva • John Nolan, Global Head of Technical Accounting Policy, RSA
15:15	Networking break
15:40	Getting your finance function ready in an IFRS 17 world
	Danny Hurley, Partner, KPMG Adam Mitchell, Senior Manager, KPMG
16:05	Panel session two: Impact of IFRS 17 on reporting to the market
	Chair: Ferdia Byrne, Partner, KPMG <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Steve Cooper, Independent Analyst • Claudia Gaspari, Head of European Insurance Equity Research, Barclays • Simon Harris, Global Managing Director, Moody's Investor Service • Fulin Liang, Equity Analyst, Morgan Stanley
16:45	In conversation with Darrel Scott, IASB
	Chair: Danny Clark, Partner, KPMG Darrel Scott, Board Member, International Accounting Standards Board (IASB)
17:10	Closing remarks
	Hugh Savill, Director of Regulation, ABI
17:15	Networking drinks reception