

IFRS 17 and the market

16 November 2021
Webinar

As the final touches are made to firms' IFRS 17 implementation plans, and as the UK Endorsement Board prepares its endorsement decision on IFRS 17's use in the UK, this year's ABI financial reporting event will include a focus on insurers' communication of their results to the market on this radically new basis, with the 2022 comparative year only a step away.

13:55	Registration
14:00	Welcome and Introduction
	David Otudeko, Assistant Director, Head of Prudential Regulation, ABI
14:05	Keynote Address One
	Mark Babington, Executive Director, Regulatory Standards, Financial Reporting Council
14:30	Panel session: IFRS 17 and reporting to the market
	Chair: Nathan Patten, Partner, KPMG <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jo Clube, Group Policy Development Director, Aviva Andrew Halim, IFRS 17 Policy and Reporting Lead, Hiscox James Pearson, Director, Actuarial and Finance Transformation, DLG
15:20	Screen break
15:45	Welcome back
	David Otudeko, Assistant Director, Head of Prudential Regulation, ABI
15:50	Keynote Address Two – Implementation – from IFRS 17 to business as usual
	Patrick Rowland, Director, KPMG
16:15	In-conversation with the Chair of the UK Endorsement Board
	Chair: Hugh Francis, Director of External Reporting Developments, Aviva <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pauline Wallace, Chair, UK Endorsement Board
16:40	Closing remarks
	David Otudeko, Assistant Director, Head of Prudential Regulation, ABI
16:45	Close