ABI BIENNIAL
CONFERENCE 2015

AGENDA 2020

3rd November 2015

Welcome

Huw Evans
Director General,
Association of British Insurers

Welcome to our 2015 conference 'Agenda 2020' in association with KPMG.

This is the ABI's flagship event and is the largest gathering of influential decision makers in the insurance and long term savings sector this year. I am delighted you have chosen to take part and hope you will get stuck into debates in both the formal sessions and in discussion with your industry peers throughout the day.

This conference is unashamedly about the future. When I became Director General in February, I was determined to rebalance our work to ensure we are devoting enough time to working through the challenges of our fast-changing world as well as dealing with the issues immediately in front of us. The document we are publishing today 'A Brave New World' should complement our focus today on how our world will feel in 2020.

The ABI is your organisation; we are here to serve you. Please use today to talk to me and the ABI team about what you need from us and how we can continue to meet your needs to 2020 and beyond. Enjoy the day.
